

Happy Halloween!

From the UFCW Local 400
Activist Contract Team! (ACT!)

While Giant gets
the BIG TREAT;
we end up being TRICKED.

Giant recovered
from the recession;
we're still deep in debt.

And now the company wants more.

Last year, Giant Food, which is owned by a Dutch company called Royal Ahold, racked up $29.5 billion euros in sales, a 4.4% increase over the year before. Company executives have definitely received their TREATS. Ahold CEO Dick Boer made about $2.7 million in total compensation and CFO Kimberly Ross took home nearly $3 million.

But the BIG TRICK was still on for those of us who bring you good customer service, fresh foods and the assistance that you count on while you shop. More than half of us make less than $10.00 an hour and even if we are eligible for it, most of us cannot afford our employer's healthcare coverage.

As for the rest of us, even with twenty and thirty years of service, we barely make enough to call ourselves the middle class.

Our union contract expires next March and we're expecting Giant to demand serious cuts in wages, health care, and pension benefits.

We've reached the point where we can't give anymore, so we'll be saying "no" to unwarranted concessions from the company.

Please support us as we stand up to Giant and fight for a future for our families.
Help us win the kind of contract we deserve!
