

The Mark Federici Slate is

MOVING 400 FORWARD

THERE IS NO COMPARISON

“MARK” YOUR BALLOT!

(Mark Federici Slate)

Over 50 Years of Combined Experience

Mark Federici & Mikki Harris

WITH LOCAL 400:

- UFCW International Union Advisory Committee
- For the past three years, Federici has helped lead all of Local 400's major bargaining efforts with Safeway, Giant, Shoppers, Kroger
- Championed legislation that took on corporations and their anti-union policies
- Local 400 organizer
- Local 400 representative
- Local 400 director of governmental affairs
- Local 400 director of strategic programs
- Local 400 executive assistant to the president
- Local 400 secretary-treasurer
- Led the Local's successful efforts to take on Smithfield, the largest pork processor in the world

COMMUNITY/POLITICAL/AWARDS:

- MD State and D.C. AFL-CIO/Vice President
- VA State AFL-CIO/Vice President
- Secretary-Treasurer Northern Virginia Labor Federation AFL-CIO
- Executive Board Member Metropolitan Washington Central Labor Council
- Progressive Maryland/Executive Committee Member
- UFCW Minority Coalition/Member
- Prince George's County NAACP/Member
- Southern Christian Leadership Committee, Richmond, VA Chapter/Member
- Recipient of the John Sturdivant Award 11th Congressional District Democratic Committee

EARLY YEARS:

- Degree in Labor Studies from Pennsylvania State University
- Joined the UFCW in 1984 as a produce clerk and night time stocker at Riverside Markets
- In 1987, he was a field representative for the Seafarers International Union of North America

WITH LOCAL 400:

- Heavily involved in the last round of bargaining for Giant, Safeway, Shoppers and now Kroger. As well as Dan Chem, Ennis, Perkins Management.
- Organized community in Richmond for largest rally for labor during Smithfield campaign
- Participated in landing an effective collective bargaining agreement for the Petersburg Boar's Head plant
- Built impressive community relationships with organizations and church groups
- Served as a SPUR after the merger between the United Textile Workers and Local 400.
- Organized 3,000 workers at Dan River, Inc.
- Local 400 representative
- Local 400 civil rights and community coordinator
- Local 400 director, member service department
- Local 400 director, strategic campaigns department
- Local 400 secretary-treasurer
- Member since 1978

COMMUNITY/POLITICAL/AWARDS:

- NAACP—Prince George's Co., Md./Life Member
- Face's of Our Children/Board Member
- Successfully assisted in organizing a chapter of Jobs with Justice in Richmond, Va.
- Organized Gospel Jazz Fest with Florida Ave. Baptist Church in D.C.
- University Association of Labor Educators/Member
- Secretary-Treasurer of UFCW Minority Coalition
- Virginia State Southern Christian Leadership Conference/Compliance Officer
- AFL-CIO Employees Federal Credit Union/Supervisory Committee Member

EARLY YEARS:

- Worked as a cashier at Grand Union.
- Produce clerk for Kroger in Danville, Va.
- Produce manager at Eddie's Supermarket.
- Computer specialist and shop steward at Dan River

To read more about the extensive experience of the rest of the Mark Federici Slate.

Check out their bios here:

www.400Forward.ORG