This week, we met with representatives from Supervalu for two days to negotiate our next contract at Shoppers Food & Pharmacy. We had productive discussions and exchanged proposals on a number of items, but we still have a lot of work to do. Our goal is to reach the best deal possible, not to rush to finish and end up with a bad agreement. As we continue negotiations over the coming weeks, we will continue to keep you updated every step of the way.

This is collective bargaining at work. Unlike workplaces without a union, you can come together with your coworkers to negotiate the best contract for everyone. Without a union, you'd be on your own. Without the protection of your union contract, your job would be entirely in the hands of the company, and you could only hope your boss doesn't do the wrong thing.

Now, more than ever, is a time to stand together. We will only get a better contract if we stick together to get the best deal for all of us. If you know a coworker that hasn't signed up, encourage them to take part in the process by becoming a Local 400 member today. We all need to stick together so we can get the fair contract we deserve.
